Day 2. Phnom Penh, a bustling capital city

Phnom Penh 📍
Phnom Penh 📍

- Let's start with the national museum and explore one of the most important collections of Khmer art: 14,000 sculptures and ethnographic objects, mostly from the temples of Angkor.
- Then, we visit the Royal Palace and the Silver Pagoda, real gems of Khmer architecture built in the middle of the 19th century.

The dress code for the Royal Palace is quite strict: shoulders and knees must be covered. Wearing a mask is mandatory.

- Visit of the Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum (S-21), the largest detention and torture center under the Pol Pot regime and the Khmer Rouge which will reveal a very painful chapter to you of the history of Cambodia.
- Visit Phnom Penh's Central Market and/or Russian Market if there's enough time after the previous visits (markets close rather early)

- English-speaking guide included on this day

Day 3. Khmer countryside by scooter

Phnom Penh 📍
 🚗 150km - ⌚ 2h 30m
 Kampong Thom 📍

- Road transfer to Kampong Thom, halfway between Siem Reap and Phnom Penh.
 - Along the way, be bold to take full advantage of a brief “gourmet” stop in the town of Skun, famous for its roasted spiders and insects.
 - Hop on a motorcycle to explore the countryside of Kampong Thom and its beautiful rural landscapes. First, take a short tour of the local market, then immerse yourself in the daily life of the Khmer people who have preserved their traditional way of life.
 - After lunch at a local's house, we depart by car to visit Phnom Santuk Mountain. This sacred mountain is home to pagodas and large reclining Buddhas; some of the oldest have been carved from rock over time, while newer ones are made of cement. You'll need to climb over 800 steps through the forest to reach the summit of this popular pilgrimage site in the region. You'll likely be accompanied by troops of monkeys. From the top, you can enjoy the view of the vast plains and the surrounding countryside.
 - On the descent, your driver drops you off at the hotel where we settle down for the night. The rest of the day is free.
- English-speaking guide included on this day

Day 5. The Majestic Angkor Temples

Angkor Wat 📍
3km
Angkor Temples 📍
Siem Reap 📍

- Day visit in a tuktuk of the marvelous temples of Angkor located around and inside the Angkor Thom.

You will notably discover Angkor Wat, symbol of the apogee of the Khmer Empire under the Angkorian era. Inside Angkor Thom, discover Bayon and its many towers with gigantic faces, Baphuon and its gigantic 40m reclining Buddha statue, Phimeanakas, the Terrasse des Elephants and its wide variety of sculptures, but also the Terrasse du Roi Leper.

Continue by Ta Prohm famous for its huge trees with sprawling aerial roots and conclude with a sunset from the heights of Phnom Bakheng.

Possibility of making the visits in the opposite direction to avoid the crowds. Just let your guide know at the start of the day.

Temples are sacred places, avoid short clothes, cover your shoulders and wear pants or a long skirt.

In order to preserve these fragile monuments, it is forbidden to touch the sculptures or to sit on elements of the temple.

In Cambodian culture, it is offensive to heckle inside a sacred place, calm and respect are key words.

It is not recommended to buy items or sweets from child sellers, this only encourages begging and the practice of skipping school, prefer a donation to an association if it is important to you.

If you wish to photograph the monks (called Bonzes), you must obtain their permission beforehand. In addition, you must not touch them, they have the right to touch you but not the opposite.

🚗 14km - ⌚ 20m
Banteay Srey 📍
🚗 40km - ⌚ 1h
Siem Reap 📍

- Departure for a hike of around 1 hour necessary to reach the site of Kbal Spean nicknamed "the temple under water". Ruins of temples dating from the 9th century border a river whose bed is strewn with carved lingas.
- Near Kbal Spean, continue with a visit to the Angkor Center for the Protection of Biodiversity. You will be able to see the efforts made by local and international teams to protect local endangered species: snakes, turtles and other reptiles, birds and exotic mammals. Children and animal lovers will be delighted by this visit of discovery and awareness.

- Continue with the visit of Banteay Srey temple, smaller than the gigantic Angkor Wat or Bayon. This pink sandstone temple nicknamed "The Citadel of Women" is known for the refinement of bas-reliefs and sculptures that adorn its walls and columns.

Then, discover the Banteay Samre temple.

- After dark, we discover Siem Reap by night on a Vespa, criss-crossing town to a variety of stops for eating, drinking and experiencing local Khmer nightlife. This food tour will cover the unusual snacks sold by street vendors but we will also introduce you to the classic flavors of Cambodian cuisine and local barbecue. We will interact with locals as we explore a bustling fun fair with a mix of games and activities. This Siem Reap After Dark Vespa tour embraces the traditional and modern sides of town, resulting in a fun and varied experience that embodies the fun-loving nature of the wonderful people of Cambodia.

Day 12. The renown of Kampot pepper.

Kep 📍

- The Kampot region is internationally recognized for its exceptional pepper. It is therefore impossible to go to Kampot without taking a trip to one of the many pepper plantations in the region!

In the morning, we leave the rooms and take the direction of Secret Lake which offers a magnificent panorama with a view of the mountains.

Then we visit the family pepper production farm, La Ferme de Sothy with a French-speaking guide of the plantation who will explain the origin and why of the reputation of this pepper. You will learn more about cultivation methods and how to cook this famous pepper.

- Along the way, near Kep, exploring the caves of Phnom Kampong Trach has some nice surprises in store for you. Considered as natural temples by local Buddhists, they hide many statues and altars. As the high point of this "caving" excursion, a beautiful representation of a reclining Buddha awaits you in an open-air clearing created by the collapse of the rock.
- Then transfer to our accommodation and free program to enjoy the end of the day in the peaceful town of Kep.

Check-in at the hotel and free program.

Day 13. Relaxing day in the Kep archipelago

Kep 📍

- Embark on a full-day eco-tour around the islands of Kep Bay.

Aboard the Nāga, a traditional Khmer fishing boat, we will guide you through the Kep archipelago, following the waves and currents, away from any other tourist circuit.

Fitted with masks and snorkels, discover the bottoms and reefs of the Kep archipelago where many species of colorful fish, sea urchins, starfish and corals evolve.

Relax in the warm, swimmable waters of Serpents' Island Bay for a fish and seafood barbecue on the boat. Then visit a traditional fishing village where you can soak up the atmosphere and watch the preparation of nets, crab cages and bait while drinking an iced coffee. Finally, set off to explore a charming little lost and atypical islet.

You may have the rare chance to observe Irrawaddy dolphins... Keep an eye out!

The boat tour starts around 9am with a return around 4pm.

Vegetarian menu on request

- In the evening, a tuktuk is scheduled to take you to the crab market where you can try the local speciality: crab sautéed with pepper!
