An 11-day tour in freedom mode ("seripheap" in Khmer) for travelers who wish to visit Cambodia at their own pace without worrying about hotel reservations and local transport. You start with a short stay in the capital Phnom Penh. On the road to Siem Reap where you will discover the unmissable temples of Angkor and the immensity of the lake Tonlé Sap, you will stop at Kampong Thom to meet Khmer rurality and its inhabitants. At the end of this excursion, you will end your journey with a visit to Battambang and its post-colonial charm.

Day 1. Welcome to Phnom Penh

Airport Phnom Penh 📍
🚗 7km
Phnom Penh 📍

- Welcome by your driver upon your arrival at the airport. Transfer and installation at your hotel. Rest of the day free.

Rooms available from 2 p.m. If you arrive a little early and your room is n't ready yet, you can drop off your bags at reception before going for a walk in town or relaxing by the pool.

Day 3. Layover in Kampong Thom

Phnom Penh 📍
🚗 150km - ⌚ 2h 45m
Kampong Thom 📍

- Transfer by road to Kampong Thom halfway between Siem Reap and Phnom Penh.
 - Still on the way, on the edge of Kampong Thom, discover the formidable pre-Angkorian temples of Sambor Prei Kuk. This archaeological site has been listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site since July 2017. It used to be a capital before the advent of the Khmer empire which settled in Angkor a few centuries later, at the crossroads of Buddhist, Hindu, animist and even Persian and Greek cultures from the 7th century AD.
- Tour with a resident English-speaking guide on site
- We then go to visit the mountain of Phnom Santuk, the sacred mountain brings together pagodas and large reclining Buddhas; the oldest were sculpted in rock over time and other more recent ones are simply made of cement. You have to climb more than 800 steps in the middle of the forest to reach the top of this popular pilgrimage site in the region. We will probably be accompanied by groups of monkeys. From up there, you can enjoy the view of the vast plains and surrounding countryside.
- No guide is included on this day
